Description
In Extras module there is new converter for connid connectors. This converter is mandatory for WinRM+AD connector version 1.0.3 or newer. The point of this ticket is to move this converter to product so we can use clean product with connector without extras module.

So now if some connector will use GuardedString array in configuration, IdM will support it. To this point it was not supported. This was developed for Extras module 1.8.0 but it will be nice to have it in product.

Pull request was also created. Vitek could you please make a review?

I did test and code review, it works, thx!

Note: test is missing, but all supported convertors should be tested as well - #2251.
